The Conference Suites:

Cumbrian Suite:

The smallest suite on offer, the Cumbrian Suite provides a warm, professional and private space ideal for small board meetings, interviews and presentations. The solid stone walls, double glazed windows ensure there is no noise intrusion during your event and if the weather is good, there is also access to the outside where the attendees can go have a break or their lunch al fresco.

Westmorland Suite:

Taking its name from old county name of Westmorland, the Westmorland Suite has been recently re-decorated and incorporates high-spec conferencing facilities and provides a light, airy and calming atmosphere. The new double-glazed windows and original 17th Century walls ensure there is no outside noise to disrupt the event. The Westmorland Suite can also be interconnected with the Hayloft Suite which can be used for holding lunches/coffee breaks. Due to its size and interconnectivity, the Westmorland Suite is ideal for large presentations, meetings, conferences, Society/Group meetings, demonstrations, AGMs and private dinners.

Hayloft Suite:

Full of old-world character and charm, with original beams, local artefacts, the Hayloft Suite offers all the modern-day conference facilities but in very traditional and cosy surroundings, instead of the blank neutral walls found elsewhere. The Hayloft Suite is ideal for holding dinners/lunches/buffets, interviews, group presentations, demonstrations, private parties and functions.

The Westmorland and Hayloft Suite can be interconnected if you have two or more aspects to your function and are on the upper floor and can be accessed by the stairs as well as a lift.
